UPDATE AND DISCUSSION ON HOME SCHOOL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

He noted that interviews have taken place, but inquired about setting up a minimum salary amount for the first year to help the instructor perform the due diligence in setting up the program correctly and efficiently. Discussion ensued on the risks of doing so, the risks of not doing so, the projected tasks of the employee, drawing students into District regular programs, dual enrollment, knowledge of programs in other districts, the ability to perform concurrent substitute duty, and start dates.
